

HOW CAN HOME VISITATION BENEFIT YOU AND YOUR FAMILY?

- ≈ Teaching parenting skills and modeling effective techniques
- ≈ Promoting early learning in the home
- ≈ Providing information and guidance on a wide range of topics
- ≈ Conducting screenings and providing referrals
- ≈ Screening children for developmental delays
- ≈ Connecting families to other services and resources as appropriate

Evidence-based home visiting programs help children and families get off to a better, healthier start.

Off to a GREAT START!

SAN LUIS VALLEY HOME VISITING COALITION

Every family is unique with different family members, different cultures & values, and different needs.

We are fortunate in the San Luis Valley to have several prenatal/early childhood home visitation programs that fit the needs of families in different ways.

Please contact any program for assistance or more information.
